Immerse yourself in the Goldfields region's multicultural heritage, spend time at the Pyrenees wineries, or simply put life on hold in the many-faceted charms of St Andrews and its surrounds. Nestled in the sleepy hamlet of Talbot, west of Daylesford, St Andrews is a tastefully converted Presbyterian church offering modern comforts with an oriental flavour evocative of the area's rich history.

St Andrews celebrates the Asian and European influences that shaped the region. Its soaring vaulted interior is decorated with exquisitely detailed Asian furniture which cleverly divides it into three discrete areas: a spacious living area comprising lounge, dining room and kitchen; a main bedroom cleverly hidden by an antique bookshelf, and; a second bedroom.

The town of Talbot itself is a hidden gem; the main street has been restored to its former glory in the heady, halcyon days of the gold rush, contrasted with rustic farmhouses that remember leaner times. Inquisitive types will enjoy the antiquarian bookstore, museum and fine art gallery. Or stock up on fresh produce from the famous monthly farmers' market.

Location: 155 km or two hours northwest of Melbourne. Map 3. Melway X921 A11.

Facilities: One church: open-plan living (TV, DVD, stereo), dining, full kitchen, two sleeping areas (one king bed, two king singles), spa bathroom, laundry; heating, fans. Continental breakfast provisions provided.
